CENTURION CHARITABLE FOUNDATION
MAKES DONATION TO TEAM UP FOR DOWN SYNDROME

June 18, 2008, TUSTIN, CA – The Centurion Charitable Foundation ("CCF"), a charitable organization, is pleased to announce that it has made its first charitable donation. Team Up for Down Syndrome was awarded $1,625 to help improve the lives of individuals and their families living with Down syndrome.

Zulma Zak, President of CCF, commented, "The Foundation is proud to present our first contribution to Team Up for Down Syndrome, whose goal is to raise the public's awareness of the positive contributions that individuals with Down syndrome make in our society. We are especially grateful to the clients and underwriters of Centurion Liability Insurance Services, whose generosity and trust in us has made this gift possible."

Centurion Liability Insurance Services ("CLIS") , an independent wholesale insurance operation, formed the Centurion Charitable Foundation as a way to have a positive impact on the community. The Foundation grants charitable contributions to purposes that reflect the desires and intents of clients doing business with CLIS, from where the funds originate. CLIS stands apart from its competitors because 10% of the gross revenue from its executive line products is earmarked for charity.
